Rev. P. S. Peemster has resigned his Professorship in the College. His place will be filled during the coming year by President W. S. Doak.

The College Post Office is proving quite a success.

The prospects for the coming year are exceedingly flattering. Tusculum is becoming a place of summer resort of late. Why not? We have pure air, plenty of shade, good water, and little to eat.

Prof. McFerrin has been elected Librarian and is arranging the Library with great care.

Music in abundance about the College.

OBITUARY.

Our community has recently sustained a heavy loss in the death of Mr. Charles H. Marsh.

Mr. Marsh was born in Papersville, Tenn., on the 7th of Feb. 1838. From Papersville his father's family moved to Bristol, where his son Charles made a credible profession of religion, and became a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Charles H. Marsh first came to Greenville as a scholar to gain the advantages of a good education. Afterward he spent some years as a clerk in the store of his uncles, McDowell and McGaughey.

On the 15th of October, 1861, he married Miss Eliza Lane, daughter of Mr. Thomas Lane of Greenville.

As soon as there was peace from civil war, he engaged in merchandizing as a partner in the firm of "C. H. Marsh and G. E. Jones" and continued in this business until his death.

As a good citizen and a faithful friend Mr. Marsh enjoyed in a high degree the respect and affectionate regards of his community. In business circles he was confidently trusted, and in the family circle he always showed himself a remarkably kind and affectionate husband and father. For several years he had been a member of the Masonic Order.

After leaving Bristol, he never returned or renewed his Church membership; yet he continued for some years a regular attendant at Church and Sabbath School until he yielded to a temptation leading to habits of non-attendance which he afterwards deeply regretted.

In his protracted illness he returned to an anxious interest in his spiritual condition and future prospects. Deeply lamenting former errors and remissness in duty, he endeavored to improve the instructions and prayers of pious friends. The writer and others who had frequent conversations with him, felt assured that he was sincerely and earnestly engaged in seeking to exercise faith in Christ and to become truly penitent and reconciled to God. But he cited complaints of darkness and inability to comprehend the way of salvation and to exercise assured faith in the Redeemer.

He repeatedly declared himself free from the fear of death if only he could feel that he was well prepared. He wished to live for his family and that he might live a Christian life.

He took much pleasure in certain favorite hymns, which were often read or sung. For example those commencing as follows:

'Jesus lover of my soul, Let me to thy bosom fly.' 'Why will ye wait and linger, That life which God's compassions pur? 'Holy Spirit, light divine Shine upon this heart of mine.' 'How sweet the name of Jesus sounds.'

The Rev. J. B. Dobson on his last visit found him more cheerful and disposed to hope and trust.

He said that he viewed himself as a great sinner and that he must be a changed man. Motivating with his hand, he said, 'I view Christ as just before me - tell me how I may come to him.'

He refrained from murmur and complaint and endured suffering with great patience.

Having desired that his children should be baptized and brought up in the right way, he called his wife, children and relatives around him and bidding a last affectionate farewell he exhorted them to meet him in heaven.

He died on the 22d day of March, 1877, in the fortieth year of his life, leaving a widow and five children to mourn a loss that can never be fully repaired.

A GREAT BATTLE IN TURKEY.

London, July 15 - The Times' Bucharest correspondent sends the following: Reports current here assert that Raouf Pasha had surrounded the Russian forces at Es-ki-Sagha, but he has been defeated with the loss of 15,000 killed and wounded and than prisoners. From the source of the report, which is through a high personage, I am inclined to believe that a great Russian success has been achieved although the above figures may be exaggerated.

An engagement has been fought at Kalafer but no particulars are given. The Russian reconnaissance upon Plevna discovered between thirty and forty thousand Turks who evidently intended to threaten Russian communications. It is stated here that the Grand Duke Nicholas hastily concentrated a superior force and routed them, but I have no further details of the affair at present.

The money pressure still continues throughout the country generally.

DR. C. McLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS.

FOR THE CURE OF Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver. PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER. Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, in CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL. For all Bilious derangements and as a simple purgative they are unequalled. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist on your druggist or storekeeper giving you the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers generally.

To those wishing to give Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS a trial, we will mail post paid to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twenty-five cents. FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.
